NEW EMPLOYEES

Please welcome Josh Davis and Jessica Woliver to the MECC family.

Josh, who is from Norton, is the new Education Support Specialist II in the Educational Talent Search Office. He received his BA degree in English from the University of Richmond.

Jessica, who is from Pennington Gap, is the new part-time Administrative Office Specialist II in the Bookstore. Jessica received her Associate's Degree in Business Management from MECC.

NEW GRANDSON

Graphic Designer/Photography Neka Wilson became a proud grandma for the second time on December 11 at 7:50 am. Carson Baly Wilson was born weighing 8 lbs., 3 oz. and 20 1/2" long. Proud parents are Chris and Sally Wilson.

“NUNSENSE”

The cast members of the Appalachian Children's Theatre community theatre group will offer up plenty of laughs on January 23 and 24, beginning at 6:00 pm each evening in the Goodloe Center.

Audience members can enjoy a dinner catered by Mosby's along with the performance of the musical comedy 'Nunsense'.

'Nunsense,' written by Dan Goggin, is an hilarious spoof about the misadventures of a group of nuns trying to manage a fundraiser. Sadly, the rest of the sisterhood died from botulism after eating vichyssoise prepared by Sister Julia. Thus, the remaining nuns stage a talent show accompanied by Cardinal Father Michael and his band in order to raise the money to bury their dearly departed.

Proceeds for the evening of entertainment will go to the Appalachian Children's Theatre After School Program and the MECC Foundation General Scholarship Fund.

Michael Donovan plays Father Michael and Debra Taylor plays Mother Superior. Five Sisters will be played by Kathy Stewart, Misty Stidham, Wendy Adrian, Gabby Caruso, and Kristine Feeser.

Tickets are $25 and are available in the MECC Foundation Office, the Appalachian Children's Theatre in Wise, and at Mosby's. For more information contact Jeri Bledsoe at ext. 287 or jbledsoe@me.vccs.edu.

RETIREMENT

Professor Gary Bumgarner, a dear friend and colleague, has officially retired after 36 years of service to MECC. Gary will be missed for many, many years to come.
